The East African Journal of Science Technology and Innovation has launched the first call for papers for publication. The journal welcomes papers in the following thematic areas:

- Agriculture Food Security and Rural Development;
- Health and wellbeing Sciences
- Natural Resources and Environmental Management
- Infrastructure
- Energy and Industrial Development
- Information and Communication Technology (ICT)
- Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics (STEM).

EAJSTI is a multidisciplinary, open access, peer-reviewed journal that publishes original research of relevance to the East African Community region, covering basic and applied research in science, technology and innovation. The goal of the Journal is to enhance, advance and disseminate scientific, technological and innovative knowledge that supports regional socio-economic development. The objectives of the journal are to:

- i. support the development of evidence based policies;
- ii. provide an avenue for disseminating scientific research and technological findings to researchers, professionals, industry and other stakeholders in the EAC and beyond;
- iii. increase the number and quality of scientific publications from EAC Partner States;
- iv. advance and opening up the new frontiers for further research in science, technology and innovation domains;
- v. enhance visibility of the regional scientific and technological research;
- vi. promote international recognition of local researchers and professionals;

The Editor-in-Chief of the journal invites authors to submit manuscripts from original scientific research whose outputs demonstrate new scientific knowledge, technologies and innovations in any of the above thematic areas to particularly consider publishing in this journal.

Papers received by 31st of May 2019 will be considered for publication in the first issue of the journal.
